

New arrivals

Cut-price supermarket Aldi is making its first foray into baby clothing this Thursday: these jeans feel much more expensive than their £2.79 price tag. They come in sizes 6-12 months, 12-18 months, 18-24 months and 2-3 years. There's also an eight-piece newborn starter set at £7.99. For your nearest store see www.aldi-stores.co.uk or call 08705 134262.

Launch your own plane: just shake the handle and watch them fly. There are four to collect – our favourite is the stealth bomber – and each costs £15. From Fisher Price, available in toy shops.

Bedwetting is a real problem for many children aged six to nine, especially boys. A new hypnotherapy CD from leading practitioner Lynda Hudson is designed to help where special alarms and even medication may have failed.

Price £12.95 from www.firstwayforward.com or call 020 8402 1928. There's also a version called Good Morning for 10-15 year-olds.

If your toddler loves Diego, Dora's animal-rescuing cousin, then this talking gadget belt is just the thing. It includes a telescope, toy compass and magnifying glass and is for aged 3-plus. Price £15 from Fisher Price.
